Ponca City Rifle & Pistol Club Chief Instructor Ron Buck (center with envelope) discusses range safety rules with club members.

(Kay County, Ok.) The Ponca City Rifle and Pistol Club recently held a shooting sports range safety and procedures orientation class for members at its new shooting sports complex located 25 minutes SW of Ponca City.

After completion of the 2 hour course, members were issued "range ID cards" which allow them to utilize the new shooting range.

The Ponca City Rifle and Pistol Club is a non-profit organization dedicated to furtherance of shooting sports, hunter education, wildlife conservation, and youth and adult firearm familiarization and safety. Its members come from all walks of life in the Kay county area and are members of the National Rifle Association as well as the local club. Many are certified firearms instructors and firearms safety instructors. Others compete nationally or regionally in shooting sports events. Others are new to shooting sports and wish to learn new things and develop new skills. The club also sponsors a Junior Rifle Club which teaches youngsters to shoot for fun while instilling safety and responsibility.
